Platanos College commemorates Remembrance Day 2019

On Monday 11th November 2019, Platanos College gathered as a school community to commemorate Remembrance Day.

Pupils were provided with the context for Remembrance Day and all members observed a two minute silence in order to honour those who have died fighting for Britain since the First World War.

A particular focus this year for the children and staff at the school was the role of the countries that were in the British Empire in laying the foundations for the democratic freedoms that we have today.

Pupils led tributes in the form of poems and songs, and the school's Uniformed Services paraded the school's Remembrance Day wreath to the school.
