WELCOME

Welcome to the third edition of the Platanos College pupil celebration newsletter.

We continue to live through extraordinary times and we continue to be proud of all of our staff, pupils and their families for how they have continued to adjust to the major changes imposed on them by fighting the coronavirus pandemic.

Teachers are working tirelessly to set meaningful lessons and work online and we thought it important to celebrate individual pupils who have shown terrific effort in producing and uploading work onto Show My Homework and the other online platforms being used by the school.

This newsletter highlight pupils nominated by the Directors of Learning of subjects as showing extraordinary effort since the school closed.

Special Recognition Awards

Nathaniel Scott

This is my own reconstruction of Georgia O'Keefe's Blue Morning Glories painting. In this picture I have a orange flower in a vase sitting on a dining table. The vase is covered with a vase cover that I crocheted myself. This craft was taught to me by my grandmother.

The photographic style I used was live focus so I could flare out the background and place focus on the vase and flower.

Artist: Nathaniel Scott

Year: 2020

Medium: Live focus

Picture name: Blue Crochet

Alda Neziri

Ana Rita Marques

I have taken inspiration from the given examples and have used an unusual floral background to make my work stand out. Additionally, I used colouring pencils to blend colours together easier and more effectively, but could use more practise when blending skin tones. I have used directional marks to show where some bits change directions, this is used mostly for the hair. Shape and line were essential for outlining and getting it to look similar to the original photograph. Furthermore, the key features of my face (such as eyes and lips) needs to be improved and more detailed next time. How do I give my work a more realistic effect/ outcome?
