An outstanding school for pupils of all abilities

PRESS RELEASE
FROM THE PLATANOS TRUST

Platanos College pupils to Perform on Stage at Theatre Royal, Drury Lane, with International Musical Stars

Date of press release: 20.04.2023

Pupils from Platanos College, will be playing on the stage at Theatre Royal, Drury Lane, London, on 24 April with Lord Andrew Lloyd Webber, five members of the celebrated Kanneh-Mason family and renowned saxophonist, Jess Gillam.

The concert is the celebration of the 10th Anniversary of the Music in Secondary Schools Trust (MiSST), of which Lord Andrew Lloyd Webber is a major supporter. It will feature 250 pupils from around the country. They have all been chosen by their schools to represent MiSST's Andrew Lloyd Webber programme at the event. The Andrew Lloyd Webber programme operates in schools all across the country and enables all pupils in Years 7–9 to learn an orchestral instrument, irrespective of financial background. The number of pupils impacted by the programme runs into many thousands. Sadly, they can't all be on stage on this one evening, but all the schools which run the MiSST Andrew Lloyd Webber programme will be represented.

The concert will include music by classical, jazz and film composers, as well as, of course, music by Lord Andrew Lloyd Webber himself
